Remote Learning Newsletter (VOL.3)

Dear Prosperitas Leadership Academy Families,

Prosperitas Leadership Academy teachers and students have been actively engaged in remote learning. We have been networking with other charter schools across the state to develop plans and procedures to ensure the delivery of high-quality instruction for your students. Our goal will remain to find a balance between remote learning and our students' needs while being sensitive to our families during this most challenging time.

Monday, March 30, 2020, we experienced our first day of Remote E-Learning. Based on the feedback from teachers and the emails I've received, I believe it was a success. The reason is because you made it a great day! Your patience, encouragement, and resilience made all the difference as we began this journey.

In conjunction with our announcements on the APEX portal, we will be providing a weekly newsletter on our website www.pla1.org. Here you will find all the necessary tools for your student to be successful. At this time, we will continue to follow this Remote Learning Plan through April 30, 2020. We will continue to communicate with families through our website, APEX portal, and email messages to share new developments and Remote Learning updates.

Tracking Daily Attendance

1. Q: What does it mean to be closed until April 30?

A: Campuses are closed. The expectation is that school districts operate under the CDC's guidance of limiting groups to 10. Schools are encouraged to operate virtually or through other non-classroom based means to the greatest extent possible to implement the continuity of instruction plan.

2. Q: What does it mean that school districts should be prepared to expand their school calendars until June 30, 2020?

A: Our goal is to complete the school year on time and on schedule. The reason we said April 15 is because the CDC is giving updates every 15 days. We are monitoring the state and federal guidance regarding COVID-19 containment, and we will remain in close contact with districts while they are implementing their continuity of instruction plans. As we approach April 15, the date students are set to return, additional guidance on distance learning plans will be provided. Current adopted school and district calendars vary; some end in May while others end in June. Updating calendars and adding additional days is a local decision, and districts may extend their calendars through the end of the fiscal year.

3. Q: How will Prosperitas Leadership Academy demonstrate and document daily student attendance? A: Our goal is to demonstrate and document daily student attendance using the following methodology:

- Students must log into APEX (E- Learning Software) with their appropriate credentials
- Students must follow his or her individual school schedule
- Students must login into each class by period that he or she is enroll in and complete their Cornell notes for English/Social Studies, Cornell notes for Science/Mathematics, quiz, and or test
- Students must login and complete his or her coursework during normal school hours Monday-Friday, 8am -1pm

Student Remote Learning Class Schedule

7:45-7:59	Homeroom- check APEX and email credentials
8:00-9:00	1st period check in
9:01-10:01	2nd period check in
10:02-11:02	3rd period check in
11:03-12:03	4th period check in
12:04-1:04	5th period check in
1:05	Lunch and dismissal

4. Q: When are teachers available?

A: Teachers will be checking email regularly from 7:00 am-4:00 pm daily. They will also be available by appointment to connect with students around their schedules. The attendance clerk will be available from 9:00 am-5:00pm.

5. Q: How quickly should I expect a response to email, etc.?

A: PLA's faculty, staff, and administration are committed to responding to students and parents as quickly as possible during this Remote E-Learning period. Emails received after 4:00 pm may not be answered until the following day. All correspondence will be responded to within 24 hours.

6. Q: What if I don't have a high-speed Internet connection at my home?

A: Please contact Ms. Gobin at S.Gobin@pla1.org if you have issues with internet access or other technology limitations at home.

7. Q: What does Remote Learning mean for grades and report cards?

A: We want our students to continue succeeding academically as we transition to a Remote E- Learning platform. We know that grace and flexibility will be essential components as we navigate Remote Learning. We will provide continuous feedback to students based on the essential content. The Remote E-Learning environment allows for alternative methods of assessment, such as class discussions, chat box responses, and audio answers; along with traditional tests/quizzes. We have a wonderful team of teachers who will be gracious and flexible as we walk alongside our students.

8. Q: How can I assist my student(s) in making the most of Remote Learning?

A: We have created a helpful list of recommended tips and guidelines to ensure a successful Remote Learning experience for your student.

Tips for Successful Remote Learning Experience

- School begins each day at 8 am. You should be logged-on in APEX Learning before 8am and ready to complete your academic tasks.
- Attendance will be taken each period daily through APEX Learning. Be on time and prepared to interact with your teachers
 - Limit distractions: pets, TV, music, social media, etc.
 - Keep a daily schedule and routine. Get ready for school each day.
 - Have a designated place in your home for learning. A desk or table is best.

9. Q: Is there a chance Remote Learning will be extended even longer?

A: We anticipate returning to campus on April 30th. However, we are learning new information every day from our federal, state, and local government officials. With your help, we will continue our Remote Learning Plan until the campus is opened or until the last day of school.

10. Q: Are the school based Monthly Threat Assessment Team Meetings canceled?

A: No. The March Monthly Threat Assessment Team Meeting occurred virtually on March 31, 2020 at 9am. The April Monthly Threat Assessment Team Meeting is scheduled for April 21, 2020 at 9am. All subsequent meetings will be announced at a later date.

2019-2020

Distance Learning classes have started on Monday, March 30, 2020

Each student has been issued an email address to be used to communicate with teachers for the purpose of unlocks and resets. Students will utilize writable PDF or Word version Cornell notes for Math Science and English and Social Studies, electives. The student code of conduct policies in regards to Cornell notes will remain the same with the implementation of electronically submitting Cornell notes.

Students have the following options for submitting Cornell notes electronically to their teachers. Teacher will be available via email during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. Monday thru Friday.

Option 1: Download the writable pdf or word version of the Cornell notes from email or Apex Announcements page – Submit to the teacher of record via email, teacher will respond with direction to student.

Option 2: Handwrite Cornell notes in the format listed. Take a picture of the note and submit the note via teacher's email address.

Handwritten notes must have the following content:

- a. English, Reading, Social Studies and Elective Form
 1. Header – Student Name, Date, Subject and Unit/Lesson
 2. Main Idea / Questions
 3. Vocabulary
 4. Summary / Who, What, How, Where, and When
 5. What did I learn / what I still do not understand?
- b. Math and Science Form
 1. Header – Student Name, Date, Subject, Unit/Lesson
 2. Main Idea
 3. Vocabulary
 4. Formula's
 5. Summary of what I learned

Course Completion Procedure

Students must adhere to Prosperitas' Cornell Note taking procedures for unlocks and resets of course material.

UNLOCKS

- Students must present Cornell Notes for a quiz or CST to be unlocked.
- For a quiz, the notes must be labelled with the section number and title.
- For a CST, present your notes for the entire section.
- No more than 2 quizzes will be unlocked at a time.

RESETS

- After the initial unlock, you may have 2 (two) resets.
- For you first reset, you should review your notes and use a highlighter or different color ink to show revisions.
- If a 2nd reset is required, you will need to complete additional notes for the section and/or unit. The need for multiple resets is an indication you have not written thorough notes.

PASSING GRADES

- 80% is the minimum passing grade for quizzes, CST's and final exams.
- If you score a 70-75%, the teacher has the option of having you correctly answer a missed question on the quiz, or CST, for additional points.
- If a student scores lower than 60% the protocol for resets should be followed.

FINAL EXAMS

- The teacher of record must unlock the final exam. This should be done only after Cornell Notes and verified a grade of at least 80% has been earned on all quizzes and CST's.
- A student may retake the final exam once after 24 hours and reviewing and revising notes and/or study guides. A teacher has the option of enrolling a student in a special course if the final exam is not passed a second time.
- If a student fails a second time, a diagnostic will be administered to determine the area of weakness. Consequently, the student will be enrolled in a prescriptive course.

CLASS/COURSE CLOSURE

- A course/class may be closed once a student has earned an overall course grade of 80% or higher.
- All Cornell Notes must be turned in to the course teacher.
- The teacher will close the course after collecting all the student's Cornell Notes for the course. The notes will be retained in addition to the APEX completion letter. Teachers should scan to a USB.
- Teachers have 2 business days from the receipt of the Cornell Notes, to close a course.
- Course completions will be submitted to the Director of Student Academic Progress for review and signature
- Cornell Notes will be provided electronically. Students will be allowed to take notes on this electronic version and submit to his or her teacher via email.

APEX TIME STAMPS

Apex time stamps student login and activity, this form of activity and submission of Cornell notes via email will be used to record student attendance.

As we are already an e-learning provider, there is very little adjustment that needs to be made in moving students from onsite supervision to a virtual environment.

EMAILING OF CORNELL NOTES

All students will receive a school generated email and a generic password (Password1) firstnamelastname@pla1.org for example: janesmith@pla1.org.

1. Go to <https://outlook.live.com/owa/>
2. Sign in with your apex username@pla1.org
3. Enter your temporary password Password1
4. Create a password – Suggested to use your current Apex password
5. Open the Cornell notes email
6. Download both Cornell notes versions
7. Once Cornell notes complemented send to teacher via email at the address provided below. All instruction concerning e-learning (APEX) will be posted on APEX's landing page.

Exceptional Student Education Services

In an effort to maintain compliance, the purpose of this memorandum is to provide direction to school staffing specialists and Section 504 coordinators regarding IEP, Section 504 and other ESE related meetings. IEP and Section 504 teams are not required to meet in person during the extended closure. Schools are permitted to hold virtual meetings or phone conference meetings so long as the parent(s) or guardian is in agreement.

Documentation of how this has been communicated with the parent and the date in which a parent provided a response regarding a virtual/telephonic meeting is required. This documentation is essential to establish a good faith effort was made to work with our families in the midst of this crisis. All meetings that have been or need to be scheduled with the legal department or with district support should be scheduled in the same manner as they have been previously. Legal and district assistance can also be provided in a virtual/telephonic manner.

Staffing specialists and Section 504 coordinators must keep track of all meetings scheduled beginning March 23rd through the extended closure. This can be documented on the spreadsheet created by the ESE compliance department. This spreadsheet will help us prioritize meetings once schools reopen and will be provided to staffing specialists and Section 504 coordinators by Wednesday March 25th.

During this extended school closure, IEP's, Section 504 plans, reevaluations, initial evaluations, etc., may expire. If an evaluation of a student with a disability requires a face to face assessment or observation, the evaluation would need to be delayed until school reopens. After the extended school closures, the IEP and Section 504 teams can resume meetings. In the conference notes, it must be documented that the meeting did not occur within the established time period due to the crisis. If parents stated they did not want to meet virtually/telephonically this should also be documented in the notes.

Mental Health Services

Paige Talbert- DMHC, ESE Policy and Natasha Llorens- LCSW, District Mental Health Social Worker will hold office hours from 9am -12pm. However, if our families need additional resources that are not listed and if our teachers have any mental health questions or concerns regarding students, they can email them directly.

Joyce Blacknell, the Mental Health Designee (MHD) can utilize the blue book (sign-in sheet for SEDNET providers) to confirm which students were previously and/or currently receiving services. The MHD can then email these agencies to verify which students are receiving mental health support via telehealth. Our parents will be able to have a session via telephone or computer with those agencies. 211 mobile crisis are offering services to families via phone, Zoom or Skype. Families can call or text directly to 407-720-0281. They are screening for high risk situations such as suicidal ideation and aggression involving deadly weapons, and partnering with law enforcement in those situations.

All of the SEDNET provider agencies have transitioned to offering telehealth in some manner. Some are still offering face-to-face on an individual basis in very limited circumstances, but mostly the services are happening either via telephone or a visual communication platform such as Zoom. The agencies have been making efforts to reach out to their clients/families to alert them to the new way of service delivery, and planning for continuity of services. All agencies are also accepting new referrals for telehealth services at this time. I have included a chart that shows further information, including which agencies are able to provide psychiatric or Medication Management services via telehealth.

The referral process remains that same in that you will need to get a parent to sign our Orange County Public School Consent to Refer form prior to sending a referral to an agency on behalf of a student. To obtain consent, you will likely need a phone call with the parent to explain the service, and to determine which method is best for getting their signature. You can physically mail the Consent to Refer form to them indicating where they need to sign it, or you can email it to them and have them sign it, and email it back if they have capability to do so. They could also take a picture of the signed document and email that to you.

If the obtaining the signature from the parent seems too cumbersome, you can give the parent the direct contact for the agency and the parent can call the agency directly to request services. The referral process may be more challenging now, but the need for mental health supports may be even greater during these stressful times.

Please stay in communication with the agencies if you have questions or concerns about referrals, or the status of current services to your students.

If you have questions about the process, please reach out to Lisa Diamond or JoDee Buis for assistance.
